What Do We Provide?

Junk and Stuff, LLC., established in 2026, is one of Johnson County's newest waste removal providers. With our fleet of roll-off dumpsters, speedy service, and personalized attention to our customers, we are quickly becoming one of Greenwood's most trusted names in waste removal.

Don't let our age fool you: Junk and Stuff, LLC. has a proven track record that speaks for itself. Our customers are our first priority. We take pride in fulfilling all of our customers' needs. To date, we've never had an unhappy customer—a track record we are extremely proud of.

Currently; we are pleased to offer multiple 15-cu. yd roll-off dumpsters for all of your disposal needs, whether remodeling, clearing a garage, or simply cleaning, we have flexible options to fit your needs.

Who Are We?

Junk and Stuff, LLC., was found by Center Grove-natives, Jamie and Sarah Helton. Jamie, a proud graduate of Center Grove High School and the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University, has a history of close involvement with the Center Grove and Greenwood communities.

Before launching Junk and Stuff, LLC., Jamie worked in Human Resources and adjacent positions for American United Life Insurance Company in Indianapolis, before transitioning to positions at R.R. Donnelly and DHL Supply Chain.

Sarah has long been involved in strengthening the community through healthcare. Currently, she maintains a position as a CMA at IU Health. Jamie and Sarah are proud parents to four children and enjoy spending their free time on their homestead, where they raise a menagerie of cattle, goats, and various poultry.

"As proud members of the Center Grove community, we strive to assist in making this the community we all want to live in."
